

Curriculum Vitae

Y. J. Tony Wang

Executive Summary

Tony is a doctoral student at PRTS in the department of Biblical Studies under the supervision of Dr. Daniel Timmer and Dr. Jerry Bilkes. His research interest is Hebrews 8-10's use of Jeremiah 31:31-34.

Tony has served at the Living Water church in Beijing as a layman preacher for many years before he is called to full-time ministry. He specialized in Finance and control in his professional career. He has been married with Hannah since 2004 and they have two children. During their stay in the United States, the family worships in the Free Reformed Church Grand Rapids, and in the Heritage Reformed Church Chinese Congregation.

Education/Career:

Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary, 2019-now

Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, MDiv, 2015-2019

Arizona State University, MBA, 1998-2001

Nankai University, B.A. Economics, 1990-1994

AMD (Beijing), Finance, 2011-2015

Nokia (Beijing, Helsinki, Saul Paulo), Finance and Control, 2006-2011

Research Interests:

- Hebrews 8-10's use of Jeremiah 31:31-34
- The relationship between apostasy, the function of conscience, and the fulfillment of the New Covenant in Jesus